limits, should fully define the situation, size, and arrangements of the proposed structure, upon which, if necessary, the Subedar of the Pettah will inspect the site and see that the applicant is prepared to execute such arrangements as may be deemed necessary for due safety of the public.

On receipt of the above report of the arrangements made and the fee leviable thereon, a license will be issued by the Subedar of the Pettah and a copy of the order will be furnished to the Parpattegar of Police for guidance; the Police will be held responsible that the conditions imposed are strictly maintained during the continuance of the pandal. As a rule, the license granted by the Municipality under this Bye-law will hold good for a period of seven days only, (except on the occasion of Dasara and Moharam festivals when the period will be extended to 15 days), and for any extension over this period the fee will be regulated and levied, calculated in the same proportion.

The provisions of this Bye-law make no exemptions to pandals intended for religious or public purposes.

Any breach of this Bye-law will, on conviction before a Magistrate, subject the offender to a penalty not exceeding rupees twenty.

The 14th February 1880.

No. 39.—Under the provisions of Section 4 of Act XXV of 1868 "The Coorg Courts' Act," the undermentioned Parpattegars are vested with Civil jurisdiction in cases in which the sums involved do not exceed Rs. 50:—

Ballachandra Billiyappa,	Parpattegar of	Ammattinad.
Iynanda Punacha	,,	Padinalknad.
Iychatti Matchaiya	,,	Tavunad.

The 16th February 1880.

No. 40.—Mandepandra Somaiya, Subedar of Virarajendrapet, is invested with the powers of a Magistrate of the 2nd Class under Sections 20, 22, and 24 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

By Order,

8. Marks will be deducted for bad writing and spelling in every subject. In non-language subjects however the deductions for spelling will not exceed 10 per cent of the maximum and for writing 5 per cent of the maximum number of marks for each branch.

9. Candidates who bring up English must answer the non-language papers in English. Candidates who do not bring up English may answer them in the Vernacular.

10. The candidates will be ranked in the order of proficiency, as determined by the total number of marks obtained by each, and will be arranged in two classes.

11. The first class will contain those who have obtained not less than—

(a) sixty per cent of the maximum marks in English Handwriting;
(b) one-half of the maximum marks in Branch C;
(c) one-third of the maximum marks in Branch A;
(d) one-fourth of the maximum marks in every other branch in which the candidate has been examined;
(e) one-half of the aggregate number of marks.

12. The second class will contain those who have obtained not less than—

15. Certificates will be issued by the Commissioner to the passed candidates, specifying the subjects in which they have been examined and the class in which they have been placed.

16. A first class certificate will render the holder eligible, on attaining the age of 18, to appointments under Government of the value of Rupees 15 and upwards to Rupees 30 inclusive, provided that any such appointment requires a knowledge of only the language or languages in which the candidate has passed.

17. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government do not undertake to provide appointments for all persons who may pass the prescribed examinations under these rules. Appointments will, as before, be regulated by the requirements of the public service, and will be made by the same authorities as heretofore. It is likewise to be understood that it will still, as before, be open to Government, and with their sanction, to the controlling Courts and Boards whenever they see necessary to prescribe the period of service, which must be passed in one grade of appointment before promotion to a higher grade altogether irrespective of these rules.

18. In the Educational Department a first-class certificate will be accepted as equivalent to the general education test for fourth-grade schoolmasters and second-grade schoolmistresses. In the case however of candidates who have passed only in one language, the certificate will be held only equivalent to the general education test required for an imperfect certficate. The holder of a first-class certificate, whether perfect or imperfect, will still be required in the case of males, to pass the departmental examination in method and teaching a class, and in the case of females, in method, needlework, and teaching a class.

19. A first or second-class certificate will qualify any person for admission as a pupil into the upper department of a High School.

(By order of His Grace the Governor in Council.)

C. G. MASTER,
Acting Chief Secretary.
